

COUNTY DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Adopted at the Convention Held in Provo on Monday, October 1, 1894.

The democratic party of Utah County in convention assembled, hereby proclaims the following principles:

We reaffirm our allegiance to the party principles as set forth in the national platform adopted at Chicago in June, 1892, and we are in hearty accord with the territorial platform adopted at Salt Lake City on September 15, 1894.

We rejoice with the whole people of the territory that Utah is about to enter the union as a free and sovereign state. Local self-government is a democratic principle vouchsafed to us. Our party has again demonstrated that the people may be trusted.

We extend to the democratic congress and president our heart-felt gratitude for the many expressions of good will to the people of Utah; in the passage of the liberal enabling act; in referring to the Mormon church its constituted property; in opening the Indian reservations for settlement; in the appointment of bona fide citizens of Utah to local offices; in the extensive grants of land for various public purposes; in the enfranchisement of hundreds of our citizens by the provisions of the enabling act; and by the recent amnesty proclamation of President Cleveland, all of which acts of friendship are in striking contrast to the treatment accorded Utah by the republican party.

Broadly we point to the record of our delegate in congress, Hon. J. L. Rawlins, whose untiring zeal, great ability, tact and diplomacy have secured for us many acts beneficial to Utah. His indefatigable labor and unparalleled success will surely be approved and rewarded by his return to congress with a vastly increased majority.

We further commend the action of the democratic congress and administration for the measure of tariff reform effected, whereby hundreds of millions of dollars will be saved annually to the people of this country. Obstructed as they were at every move by determined opposition, they nevertheless succeeded in wresting from wealth and plutocracy a portion of the means of increasing their ill-gotten gains, and in relieving McKinleyism a host cause. We specially endorse the income tax provision of the tariff law, whereby those who are just portion of the burdens of taxation.

In the repealing of the federal election law, and thus securing freedom of citizens at the polls.

In revising the pension lists and pension laws so as to prevent spoliation of the public treasury by the unscrupulous, while dealing liberally and justly with those who deserve the aid of government.

It behooves the people of this country and this territory, to keep the party party out of power. It is a party of broken and post mortem promises, whose policy prompted by avarice and individual aggrandizement, has precipitated the recent panic and brought this country to the verge of ruin.

We arraign the recent republican legislature of Utah for its intense partisanship and inefficiency, for its attempt to divert the public moneys from their legitimate use to the payment of bounties to select private enterprises. Had it not been for the wisdom of the governor, more than $80,000 would have been taken from the public school fund. For its refusal to appropriate sufficient funds for the Insane Asylum, the Agricultural College and the University of Utah, by which infamously those institutions can only be carried on as required by law, by loans which must be met by the people in the future. For passing unwise laws and refusing to pass others which would be for the common good.

We call attention to the efficiency and honesty which has marked every department of our present county government. Wise economy should rule in every branch of public service. We believe that competency and fidelity are the only qualifications for office.

We are in favor of home industries. We are in favor of the full enfranchisement of women, and pledge our lives to use our every effort to the end that our new constitution shall provide for woman suffrage on an equality with men.

We call upon the people to see to it that the state of Utah shall be founded on the broad principles of the democratic party, which are the principles of justice and free government. Care must be exercised that monopolies shall get control of the public lands and need to the state of Utah, and that as possible these lands be granted to the actual settler.

We declare ourselves in favor of the public school system where the children of the rich and the poor alike participate freely of the blessings of public instruction.

We are in favor of the free and unadmitted coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1 with gold.

Relying upon the fidelity, intelligence and patriotism of the people of Utah, we confidently expect by their complete vindication of the principles herein enumerated.

New York Police Bureau.

It came out at the police board meeting in New York last month that when ever any big strike or riot has been going on out of town Superintendent Byrnes has obtained permission from the Western Union Telegraph company to tap its underground wire at Broadway and Houston street and receive prompt news direct from distant points. Little of importance during the recent Chicago strike came into the Western Union office that he did not know about almost as soon as it reached the newspaper offices. The superintendent admitted that this arrangement had been of immense service to him, and that had the strike extended to within reasonable limits of New York city his arrangements were all perfected. The Western Union people have consented to make this arrangement permanent.

Four Big Successes.

Having the needed remedy to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed—Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at Smoot Drug Co.

German Tobaccoist's Joke.

The following "find" upon an insurance company, which we find in The Deutsche Taalch-Zeitung, is certainly just a little too good to be true. A cunning fellow, who wanted to smoke the best cigars at the cheapest possible cost, bought 1,000 cigars of the highest quality and corresponding price and immediately insured the whole stock. When he had smoked the last of them, he demanded 750 marks from the insurance company on the ground that the whole of his insured stock, 10 boxes of cigars, had been consumed by fire! The Solomon court decided in favor of the plaintiff. The company then brought an action of conspiracy against the smoker, accusing him of having intentionally put fire to his own cigars and deliberately destroyed his property. Hereupon the same wise court condemned the insured smoker to three months' imprisonment.—Westminster Gazette.

PUBLIC OPINION.

The St. Louis Republic Makes Some Interesting Comments on the Decline of Food Prices.

Edited by Sam. A. King.

The following from the St. Louis Republic, is well worth the perusal of every person in the community, as it gives in unmistakable terms some of the results of republican administration:

DECLINE IN FOOD PRICES.

When the American Grocer published in its last issue a table showing the decline of food prices since 1889, the supposition was that republican papers would either deny the accuracy of the figures—under McKinley's leadership republicans never hesitate to contest well known economic facts—or would be silent.

It is a commentary on the absence of guiding principle in republican councils that the organs of that party have used the figures to prove two inconsistent propositions. Some of them say that the fall in agricultural prices shows how republican ascendancy has blessed the workman by affording him cheaper living. Others say that the prevailing low prices of farm products are the result of democratic administration.

Now farm prices are a two-edged sword in republican hands, and both edges cut into republican pretenses.

According to the Grocer's table, flour was $6.62 a barrel in 1889 and is $3.30 now; meat beef $11.41 a barrel in 1889 and $8.19 now; lard 18¢ cents in 1889 and 7¢ cents now. Canned goods and vegetables have fallen 60 per cent.

The republicans who mention these price changes at once that their protective laws have done nothing at all for the farmer in 25 years.

They further confess that low prices of food products are advantages to the workmen of the towns. How can they deny that low prices for factory goods are advantageous to both farmer and workman?

They further confess that their doctrine of raising wages by protection is an ignominious fraud. There are at least seven times as many unprotected farmers as there are so-called protected workmen in protected industries. Excluding the female and child labor in protected industries, there are 10 times as many unprotected farmers as there are so-called protected workmen. The conditions of life on the farms must certainly have 10 times as much effect on the labor market as the conditions in factory towns. If there is to be drawn from the Grocer's figures any conclusion as to the effect of 25 years of economic legislation, it must certainly be that the farmer has been injured and that the strength of the wage earner's position has been seriously impaired.

If a cheap coat makes a cheap man a cheap barrel of their most cheapen manhood. Farmers and workmen alike can point to the Grocer's table and ask the republican party: "Is this your work? If so, explain yourself."

Apart from all republican economic falsehoods, cheap food is a blessing to the man who consumes it. Whether it depends on how much is his cost of production.

Thanks to the cheap lands and the industry of the non-protected farmer, the American people have obtained their food at the cheapest rates in the world and know nothing of the problem of starvation.

But why should not the American people also have cheap coats, blankets, utensils, tools and implements?

While all prices have fallen, the cost of production has fallen most in manufactures. Except in the items of transportation and packing-house methods, the cost of supplying farm products has not fallen in any great degree since 1889. The cost of supplying manufactured goods has fallen marvellously. It costs the farmer nearly as much to raise wheat and corn. His chief gain is in more accessible markets. In other words, what is equivalent to greater freedom of trade is nearly all he has gained since 1889.

In manufactures, on the other hand, inventions have supplanted labor until the average cost of production is probably scarcely 25 per cent. of the cost 25 years ago. Not all of that saving has gone in profits to the manufacturer, because unwise laws, which he clamored and paid for, have really limited his markets so that he is frequently troubled with overproduction.

But a large part has gone into his profits. Carnegie's $1,500 a day is one example. The 60 per cent. annual dividend of the Arlington mills is another.

In quoting the Grocer's table the republicans admit the whole democratic contention on the tariff. Food products have gone down until the necessary articles on the dinner table are an insignificant part of living expenses. How about clothing, carpets, utensils, tools and implements? Why have they not gone down equally and helped to decrease the workman's and farmer's cost of living? The cost of manufacturing production has gone down faster than the farmer's cost of production. Why have prices been artificially kept up when farmer's prices have not only been permitted to naturally fall, but have been forced down further by interference with the process of commercial exchange between the farms and the markets where the prices of farm products are fixed?

The Grocer's figures are worth the farmer's attention. He will see declines of 40 and 60 per cent., though his cost of production is not greatly different; while he can see protection of from 40 to 800 per cent. on manufactured goods for 25 years; notwithstanding the fact that new processes have revolutionized the economies of manufacture.

Workingmen should also ponder upon the table. Prices and profits have fallen in the great occupation which establishes the standard of American wages, while the other items of living cost, which are produced principally by labor saving machinery and which employ a very small proportion of the country's labor, are made to absorb an artificially large proportion of weekly earnings.

The only law of healthy human action is freedom. The only law of human production and trade is freedom.

If we can keep the McKinleyites to a discussion of the tables of prices, they will get few votes either among workmen or farmers.
